Marvin Oaks was working as a lineman when he slipped and fell on the ice in February of 2022. His spinal surgeon referred him to St. Luke's Rehabilitation Hospital for inpatient rehabilitation so he could return home, where he lived independently prior to his accident.

When Mr. Oaks first arrived on January 17, 2023, he was in a great deal of pain following his surgery. However, he credited the therapy team with helping to push him and keep him on schedule so he could meet his goal of going home to his own bed. Mr. Oaks said he appreciated the caring and informative approach the entire St. Luke's team took with his care.
